STAR-BULLETIN GIVES YOU
TODAY'S NEWS TODAY

Last Saturday afternoon the extension cooking class of the College of Hawaii served a luncheon to six members of the faculty. Each year it is the custom of this class, which is under the instruction of Miss Florence Lee, to serve a luncheon to six members of the faculty, inviting different ones each time to be guests.

The young ladies do the planning, marketing, cooking and serving themselves, and the affair is a test of what can be done in the way of a four-course luncheon with two dollars or at thirty-three and third cents per plate.

The luncheon was served in the dining room of the domestic science department, which was beautifully decorated in pink and green.

Baskets of pink begonias and lovely pink hibiscus with potted palms and great fluffy maidenhair ferns were arranged artistically about the room. In the center of the table was a basket filled with pink begonias and maidenhair, while sprays of each were scattered about on the snowy cloth.

The place cards were decorated by Mrs. B. F. Beardmore with hand-painted pink roses and a little boy of molasses. Miss Charlotte Hall had adorned each card with an appropriate linetype by which each guest had to recognize his place.

Covers were laid for Dean and Mrs. J. S. Donaghy, Prof. Arthur Keller, Prof. Vaughan MacCauley, Dr. Jackson and Miss Florence Lee.

The members of the class who prepared the luncheon were Miss Charlotte Hall, Miss Myra Angus, Mrs.
Howard Ellis, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Ruth Anderson, Mrs. H. Bicknell, Mrs. B. F. Beardmore and Miss James Cook.

A most beautiful wedding took place last evening at St. Andrew's cathedral, when Miss Marie Howard became the bride of Mr. Theodore Cook. The decorations were lovely, being carried out in green and white throughout, even to the costumes of the bridesmaids. By 8 o'clock the church was filled with the friends and relatives of the young couple. After an overture by Mr. Reginald Carter and an anthem by the vested choir, the "Lohengrin" wedding march rehearsed the approach of the bridal party. This was led by Mr. Richard Cotton and Mr. David Larsen, followed by the other two ushers, Mr.
William Hoogs and Mr. James Morgan, and the bridesmaids, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Esther Kopke and Miss Marie von Holt. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Alice Cooke, and then the bride on the arm of her father.

Mr. Alan Lowrey acted as best man for Mr. Cooke.

The ceremony was performed by Canon Ault, after which the blessing was pronounced by Bishop Restarick.

After the wedding an informal reception was held at which only the bridal party and the relatives of both families were present.

A farewell reception was held on Monday evening at the First Methodist church by the members of the congregation in honor of the Rev. R.
Kimer Smith and his family, as well as several other families of the congregation who are leaving soon for the mainland. Mr. Smith and his family left today on the Wilhelmina for Portland, Oregon, where Mr. Smith has accepted a new pastorate. Among the other members of the congregation who are soon to leave and who were included as honor-guests at the reception were: Mrs. Stoddard and daughters, Mrs. Fred Hakey and children, Charles K. McClelland and family, Mr. and Mrs. Man, Miss Elvina Gill, Mr. Hogan and Miss Krough.

The church was beautifully decorated with yellow corymbs and masses of green ferns. Dr. J. W. Wadman made a brief address for the church; Mr. John Martin spoke for the Epworth League, and Mrs. O. H. Walker for the Sunday school; Miss Lily Shelton recited, and the program concluded with the singing of "Aloha Oe" by a group of school children, and a short response by Mr. Smith. Miss Marilla Smith also rendered several selections on the organ.

A pleasing event of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Smith by Mrs. McAllister on behalf of the Ladies Aid Society, of a lovely berry spoon, a souvenir of Hawaii.

The reception committee was composed of Mrs. J. W. Wadman, Mrs.
John McTaggart, Mrs. Shelton, Mrs.
Reddy and Mrs. E. E. Smith, while Miss Bertha Kemp, Mr. Hudson, Mr.
Ralph Quarles, Mrs. Taokabury and Mrs. Robbins had charge of the program.

Earl Grey and the Countess Grey were among the distinguished guests at the big luncheon in San Francisco given recently by the Woman's Board.
Lady Grey, like her public-spirited husband, was profuse in her praises of the exposition site and the buildings.

commenting on the wonderful harmony, the beauty and simplicity of the grouping, and being most effusive on the enchanting view, the isles of the bay, the sloping hills of the Marin shore on the opposite side of Golden Gate, and the vision of the blue Pacific beyond eliciting unbounded admiration. As Earl Grey and Countess Grey are now completing a world tour, their flattering praises of the exposition mean a great deal, as they have had every opportunity for endless comparison. Incidentally, the entire party was entertained by Mrs. Phoebe Hearst gave a luncheon in honor of Countess Grey.

Appropos of distinguished visitors whose entertainments will be one of the pleasant features of social life, the Prince and Princess Kara Georgevitch of Athens, Greece, have written their friends and particularly the cousin of the latter, Mrs. Clarence Martin Mann, of their intention to be in San Francisco during the exposition.

On Monday evening of last week Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews entertained at the Outrigger Club for the cast of the recent College of Hawaii play, "The Mysterious Dr. Burdon." After a most delightful supper, a jolly half-hour was spent in singing college songs. Then just as the moon was peeping over the mountains a refreshing swim was enjoyed.
Dr. and Mrs. Andrews coached the college play this year, as last, and took this opportunity to compliment the eight "suffragette actors." Those present were the Misses Irene B. Al-ker, Laura Atherton, Miriam Clark, Dorothy Raab, Bernice Smith, Rebecca Johnson, Shirley Foster, Mrs. Sarah Souders, Mrs. Byron O. Clark, and Dr. and Mrs. Andrews.

Miss Sallie Collins, who impersonated the part of Dr. Burdon, was unable to attend owing to illness.

The Honolulu Symphony Society has planned a series of symphony concerts which are to be offered to the Honolulu public at popular prices.
The first concert is to be given on next Monday evening and will be conducted by Prof. Carl Miltner, with Mrs. Elise Cross Howard as solo pianist.

The symphony orchestra consists of 35 musicians under the leadership of Mr. Miltner, who is very well known both as a violinist and as a conductor. The program promised for the evening is most interesting. Among other things are included the overture from "William Tell," Beethoven's
"Second Symphony," and "Hearg's "Davotte-Serenade." The number on the program, however, which has received the most wide-spread attention is the Last "Hungarian Rantalle," which will be played by Mrs.
Elise Cross Howard, accompanied by the entire orchestra. Mrs. Howard's name on any program is enough to attract considerable notice, so her appearance on Monday evening will doubtless draw out a large number of her many admirers. Her recent exhibitions have been of so high and pleasing a standard, that the musical public are constantly demanding more.

Everything is in readiness at Puna-hau for the opening performance of "Love's Labour Lost," next Friday evening. A stage has been erected beneath one of the largest trees on the campus, directly in front of Pauahi hall. This will make a beautiful natural background for the play which, with the lighting effects and the perfect night, which has been ordered from the weather bureau for the occasion, should lend a most romantic and picturesque atmosphere.

Mrs. Isaac Cox, under whose direction the play is being given, reports very satisfactory rehearsals and is confident that the performance will go off without a hitch on Friday evening. The principals are doing extremely well with their parts, particularly Miss Ruth Soper, who is handling the role of the Princess of France very proficiently. John O'Dowda as "Biron," Joseph Farrington as "Mereade," Glosson Emory as "Don Adriano," and Lorin Thurston as "Holofernes" are all doing surprisingly well with their parts, while David Withington as the clown, "Costard," promises to be a "scream."

The students have been pushing the sale of tickets and a capacity attendance is expected.

of the attractive novelties which the girls offered for sale were quickly sold, the delicious homemade candy was in great demand, while the "Punch and Judy" show was patronized and enjoyed by the grown-ups as well as the children.

A great deal of credit is due to Miss Laura Atherton, president of the society, and all the girls who assisted her, for the success of the fair.

Miss Grace Arnold was married in Manila yesterday morning to Mr. A. B.
Crespi. Miss Arnold resided for several years in Honolulu, where she practiced her profession of nursing and won a great many friends.

Mr. Crespi is manager of the Luzon Brokerage Company of Manila. Mr. and Mrs. Crespi expect to pay a visit to the states in the near future and in so doing will stop over for some time in Honolulu.

Miss Lurline Matson, whose friends are showering her with their hospitalities, was guest of honor at a bridge tea which Mrs. Frank H. Buck gave at her home in Piedmont on Tuesday, May 19th, and on Wednesday, the 20th.
Miss Lillian Van Vorst had many of the same coterie as guests at a luncheon for Miss Matson.

The Kamehameha Alumnae reunion which was held last Saturday evening by the Kamehameha Girls' school was attended by nearly five hundred persons. Satisfactory reports were read and an excellent program given, after which dancing was enjoyed to the music of the Kamehameha Glee club.

The program was as follows:
Song, "Morn Rise," a choral, by A.
Gibbula.

Treasurer's report by Miss Pope.
Address, Hon. W. O. Smith.

Song, "Indian Love Song," by Cad-man girls' quintet.

Solo, "Pua Mohala," Mrs. C. L. Hall.
Address, Mrs. Percy L. Horne.
Welcome to Class of 1914, Miss Mabel Wilcox.

Response to Class of 1914, Johanna Wilcox.

Song, Senior boys.
Dancing.

The students of McKinley high school were afforded an exceptional treat on Monday morning when Mrs.
Beale Abbott Howland sang for them two selections, "Fulfillment" and "My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose," both by MacDermid. So enthusiastically were these received that Mrs. Howland had to respond with two encores, "Villanelle," by Del Aquia, and "Celeste," by Mr. Edward A. P. Newcomb. After her contributions, the Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Chester Hunt, gave two Hawaiian songs, one of which was also composed by Mr. E.
A. P. Newcomb.

The program was exceedingly enjoyed by all present.

The Cornell Club of Hawaii is giving on Friday night at the University Club a large dinner for those students attending McKinley high school, Pu-nahou academy and the College of Hawaii who expect to attend Cornell next year. The young men who will be guests of honor are: Messrs.
Campbell Crozier, John Watt, Elbert Tuttle, Malcolm Tuttle, Goodale Moir, Stafford Austin, Ralph Grey, William Morgan and Mott-Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hall entertained on last Friday evening in honor of Mr. Mischa Elman, when a delightful evening of music was enjoyed. Among those present were: Mr.
Mischa Elman, Mr. Paul Elman, Mr.
Percy B. Kahn, Mrs. Elise Cross Howard, Mr. John Gifford, Mr. and Mrs.
W. D. Adams, Mr. George C. Ayerza, and Mr. and Mrs. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beckley were hosts at their beautiful Walkiki home last Tuesday evening in honor of Prince and Princess Kahanaloale and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle who have just returned home. The house was beautifully decorated and a stringed orchestra furnished exquisite music for dancing, after which a supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dekum entertained at dinner last Wednesday evening for Captain and Mrs. W. R. Davis, Judge and Mrs. A. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. A. Hocking. The table was attractively decorated with nasturtians of different hues.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Greenwell are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the birth of a son on Monday.
